Lipanthyl®

Michael,

After talking to David M., I take it that he did NOT deduce that a causally definable relation between world-points of space-like separation must be an equivalence relation; instead he showed that IF we require such a relation to be an equivalence relation, then we can deduce that $\epsilon = 1/2$.

But that is not at all incompatible with the claims made by Reichenbach & myself.

Adolf